Strike Day – School Closed Tomorrow

Please remember that school is closed tomorrow due to the strike action. Please remember to make alternative arrangements for your children tomorrow. We thank you for your support.

Senior School Cross Country

Congratulations to everyone who competed in the Senior School Cross Country yesterday. The event was very well run and the atmosphere under the canopy was fantastic. Students cheered each other on and supported every one of their peers as they ran down the finishing channel to the finish line. Those who managed to secure top places will head to Te Atatu South Park on Tuesday November 18 to compete in the Zonal Cross-Country event.

Year 6 School Camp

On Tuesday, our Year 6 students head off to Carey Park for their annual school camp. Camp is an important opportunity for students not only to challenge themselves through activities such as kayaking and the high ropes course, but also to develop greater independence by being away from home and the comfort of family for a few days. We recognise the importance of school camps and the value these experiences add to our students' learning and personal growth. We wish the team all the best for the four days away.

What's Coming Up

As always term four is a busy month. Please continue to check the dates in each newsletter to keep in touch with what is happening around the school:

- Board Meeting – Wednesday 22 October
- School Closed – Thursday 23 October
- Labour Day – Monday 27 October
- Year 6 Camp – Starting Tuesday 28 October
